

EAST LIVERPOOL'S GOT TALENT (ELGT) WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY
AS OF [Insert Date]

An Ohio Non-profit Public Benefit Corporation

Ohio §4113.52(A)(1) et seq. and §124.341 private and public employers. An employer cannot discipline or retaliate against an employee making a report of a violation of state, federal or local law or rule. The employee must notify their supervisor by written report with sufficient detail to describe the violation. The employer must make a good faith effort to correct the violation within 24 hours or the employee may notify the prosecuting authority, a peace officer or an appropriate public agency or official. Employees can be disciplined for failure to make a good faith effort to ascertain the accuracy of information reported. A separate law provides that state employees cannot be disciplined or retaliated against for reporting a violation of state or federal statute or rule or a misuse of public resources. Employees may be disciplined for reporting false information. An aggrieved employee's sole and exclusive remedy is to file an appeal with the state personnel board of review within 30 days after alleged discriminatory action.

WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION POLICY

A. Application. This Whistleblower Protection Policy applies to all of the East Liverpool's Got Talent staff, whether full-time, part-time, or temporary employees, to all volunteers, to all who provide contract services, and to all officers and directors, each of whom shall be entitled to protection.

B. Reporting Credible Information. A protected person shall be encouraged to report information relating to illegal practices or violations of policies of the Organization (a "Violation") that such person in good faith has reasonable cause to believe is credible. Information shall be reported to the Compliance Officer, unless the report relates to the Compliance Officer, in which case the report shall be made to the Executive Directors who shall be responsible to provide an alternative procedure.

Anyone reporting a Violation must act in good faith, and have reasonable grounds for believing that the information shared in the report indicates that a Violation has occurred.

C. Investigating Information. The Compliance Officer shall promptly investigate each such report and prepare a written report to the Board of Directors. In connection with such investigation all persons entitled to protection shall provide the Compliance Officer with credible information. All actions of the Compliance Officer in receiving and investigating the report and additional information shall endeavor to protect the confidentiality of all persons entitled to protection.

D. Confidentiality

The Organization encourages anyone reporting a Violation to identify himself or herself when making a report in order to facilitate the investigation of the Violation. However, reports may be submitted anonymously by filling out a “Whistleblower Reporting Form” and mailing it to the chair of the appropriate committee Reports of Violations or suspected Violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, with the understanding that confidentiality may not be maintained where identification is required by law or in order to enable the Organization or law enforcement to conduct an adequate investigation.

E. Protection from Retaliation. No person entitled to protection shall be subjected to retaliation, intimidation, harassment, or other adverse action for reporting information in accordance with this Policy. Any person entitled to protection who believes that he or she is the subject of any form of retaliation for such participation should immediately report the same as a violation of and in accordance with this Policy.

Any individual within the Organization who retaliates against another individual who has reported a Violation in good faith or who, in good faith, has cooperated in the investigation of a Violation is subject to discipline, including termination of employment or volunteer status.

F. Dissemination and Implementation of Policy. This Policy shall be disseminated in writing to all affected constituencies. The Organization shall adopt procedures for implementation of this Policy, which may include:

- (1) documenting reported Violations;
- (2) working with legal counsel to decide whether the reported Violation requires review by the Compliance Officer or should be directed to another person or department;
- (3) keeping the board of directors [and the audit committee or other applicable committee] informed of the progress of the investigation;
- (4) interviewing employees;
- (5) requesting and reviewing relevant documents, and/or requesting that an auditor or counsel investigate the complaint; and
- (6) preparing a written record of the reported violation and its disposition, to be retained for a specified period of time.

The procedures for implementation of this Policy shall include a process for communicating with a complainant about the status of the complaint, to the extent that the complainant’s identity is disclosed, and to the extent consistent with any privacy or confidentiality limitations.
